COMPETITION RULES

- Cut-off Qualification System: When 20 or more competitors participate.
  - The competitor performs two given Poomsae and half of the competitors from each group go to the semifinals based on the number of points they have won. If the number of competitors is odd, then the number of competitors should be rounded to the first equal number.
- Cut-off system semi-finals: when there are 9 to 19 competitors.

  The competition begins with the semi-finals, the competitors perform two given Poomsae and 8 competitors based on the results go to the finals.
- Cut-off system finals: when there are 8 or fewer competitors.

  The competition starts from the final round. Competitors perform two mandatory Poomsae, and the 4 best placed competitors / pairs / teams will be awarded on the basis of points, 3 and 4 places will receive a bronze medal.

NOTE: Due to the large number of competitors or lack of time, the organizer may change the qualification mode, so that instead of two mandatory poomse in each round, one given Poomsae may be performed in agreement with the Technical Committee for the A Class of competitors. In B class, the contestants perform one selected form in each round of the competition.

THE WINNER ANNOUNCEMENT

- The winner is the competitor who has the most points.
- In case of a tie, the winner will be the contestant who has received more points for the presentation.
- In case that the score is still tie, the winner is the one with the highest total of points (total points of all referees, including the highest and lowest marks).
- If case the result is still tie then an extra match will be made to determine the winner. The judge will choose the Poomsae to be scored.
- Again, one mandatory Poomsae is performed. The previous result will not affect the replay result.
- In case the result is tie after the Poomsae has been re-performed, the winner will be the competitor who has more points, including the highest and the lowest score.

FREESTYLE POOMSAE - RULES

Freestyle Poomsae is a performance, based on the Taekwondo techniques composition of music and choreography.

Composition of freestyle Poomsae

- Yeon-mu line will be selected by the contestant.
- Music and choreography will be selected by the contestant.
- The performance must be within the limits of the Tekvondo technique. The definition of Tekvondo technique will be determined by the TAS Refereeing Committee when the contestant submits a freestyle Poomsae. The plan is sent to the email: referee_poomsae@tas.org.rs by the end of the application deadline.
- Poomsae must contain the required elements (5). If one of the required elements is missing it will not be scored.

Regulations on Poomsae and freestyle Poomsae are available on the TAS website.
